ZIMBABWE

ACT

TO make further provision with regard to functions of the Zimbabwe Media Commission; to provide for the manner in which the Commission exercises its functions; to provide for the investigation and hearing procedure by the Commission of complaints received; to provide for the secretariat of the Commission; to bring the Commission into operation and to provide for matters connected with or incidental to the foregoing.

WHEREAS section 61 of the Constitution provides as follows—

“61 Freedom of expression and freedom of the media

(1) Every person has the right to freedom of expression, which includes—

- (a) freedom to seek, receive and communicate ideas and other information;*
- (b) freedom of artistic expression and scientific research and creativity; and*
- (c) academic freedom.*

(2) Every person is entitled to freedom of the media, which freedom includes protection of the confidentiality of journalists’ sources of information.

(3) Broadcasting and other electronic media of communication have freedom of establishment, subject only to State licensing procedures that—

- (a) are necessary to regulate the airwaves and other forms of signal distribution; and*
- (b) are independent of control by government or by political or commercial interests.*

- (4) All State-owned media of communication must—
- (a) be free to determine independently the editorial content of their broadcasts or other communications;
 - (b) be impartial; and
 - (c) afford fair opportunity for the presentation of divergent views and dissenting opinions.
- (5) Freedom of expression and freedom of the media exclude—
- (a) incitement to violence;
 - (b) advocacy of hatred or hate speech;
 - (c) malicious injury to a person's reputation or dignity; or
 - (d) malicious or unwarranted breach of a person's right to privacy.

AND WHEREAS section 248 to 250 of the Constitution provides as follows—

“248 Establishment and composition of Zimbabwe Media Commission

(1) There is a commission to be known as the Zimbabwe Media Commission consisting of—

- (a) a chairperson appointed by the President after consultation with the Committee on Standing Rules and Orders; and
- (b) eight other members appointed by the President from a list of not fewer than twelve nominees submitted by the Committee on Standing Rules and Orders.

(2) Members of the Zimbabwe Media Commission must be chosen for their integrity and their competence in administration and their knowledge and understanding of human rights issues and the best practices in media matters.

249 Functions of Zimbabwe Media Commission

- (1) The Zimbabwe Media Commission has the following functions—
- (a) to uphold, promote and develop freedom of the media;
 - (b) to promote and enforce good practices and ethics in the media;
 - (c) to monitor broadcasting in the public interest and, in particular, to ensure fairness and diversity of views broadly representing Zimbabwean society;
 - (d) to encourage the formulation of codes of conduct for persons employed in the media and, where no such code exists, to formulate and enforce one;
 - (e) to receive and consider complaints from the public and, where appropriate, to take action against journalists and other persons employed in the media or broadcasting who are found to have breached any law or any code of conduct applicable to them;
 - (f) to ensure that the people of Zimbabwe have fair and wide access to information;
 - (g) to encourage the use and development of all the officially recognised languages of Zimbabwe;
 - (h) to encourage the adoption of new technology in the media and in the dissemination of information;
 - (i) to promote fair competition and diversity in the media; and
 - (j) to conduct research into issues relating to freedom of the press and of expression, and in that regard to promote reforms in the law.

- to—
- (2) An Act of Parliament may confer power on the Zimbabwe Media Commission to—
- (a) conduct investigations and inquiries into—
- (i) any conduct or circumstance that appears to threaten the freedom of the media; and
- (ii) the conduct of the media;
- and*
- (b) take or recommend disciplinary action against media practitioners who are found to have breached any law or any code of conduct applicable to them.
- (3) An Act of Parliament may provide for the regulation of the media.”;

AND WHEREAS it is desirable, as provided by the Constitution, to make further provision with regard to the Zimbabwe Media Commission:

NOW, THEREFORE, be it enacted by the Parliament and the President of Zimbabwe as follows—

PART II

ZIMBABWE MEDIA COMMISSION AND STAFF

3 Discharge of functions by Commission

Members of the Commission other than the chairperson, shall not be fulltime employees of the Commission.

4 Additional functions of Commission

(1) In addition to the functions set out in section 249 of the Constitution, the Commission shall have the following functions—

- (a) to monitor and secure compliance with any—
 - (i) law which regulates media practitioners and media services including broadcasting, print and electronic media, in order to ensure respect for the rights protected by section 61 of the Constitution;
 - (ii) international treaty to which Zimbabwe is a party with respect to the protection, promotion or advancing of people’s rights in relation to the media in Zimbabwe;
- (b) to collaborate and co-operate with other independent constitutional Commissions in supporting and entrenching human rights and democracy.

(2) For the Commission to better discharge its functions, it shall have the powers specified in the First Schedule.

5 Disqualifications for appointment and procedure at meetings

The Second Schedule shall apply with respect to—

- (a) additional disqualifications for appointment as a member of the Commission; and
- (b) the procedure to be followed by the Commission at its meetings.

6 Deputy Chairperson of Commission

The members of the Commission shall elect one of their number to be the Deputy Chairperson of the Commission, who must be of a different gender from its Chairperson.

7 Secretary and other staff of Commission and experts

(1) The Commission shall, after consultation with the Minister and the Minister responsible for finance, appoint—

- (a) a Secretary; and
- (b) such other staff of the Commission as may be necessary for the proper exercise of its functions.

(2) The offices of the Secretary and other members of staff of the Commission shall be public offices but shall not form part of the Civil Service.

(3) The Secretary shall, subject to the general control of the Commission—

- (a) be responsible for carrying out the decisions of the Commission and the execution of the day-to-day administration and management of the affairs, staff and property of the Commission;
- (b) be the custodian of the Commission's records;
- (c) attend all meetings of the Commission, but shall have no vote on any matter before the Commission; and
- (d) perform any other functions in connection with this Act as may be assigned to him or her by the Commission.

(4) The Commission—

- (a) may appoint, on fixed term contracts, such experts, including experts from other countries, where no such expertise is available in Zimbabwe, as it may consider necessary to assist it in the exercise and performance of its functions in terms of the Constitution and this Act; and
- (b) shall fix the terms, conditions, remuneration and allowances payable to any expert and the work to be performed or service to be rendered by virtue of such appointment in a written agreement entered into between the Commission and the expert concerned.

(5) The Commission shall require the expert to submit a report in regard to the work he or she performed for the Commission for its consideration and, on receipt of the report, may refer the matter back to the expert—

- (a) for such further attention as may be determined by the Commission; or
- (b) to perform such further work as the Commission may deem necessary or desirable.

PART III

INVESTIGATIONS AND HEARINGS

8 Power to investigate

(1) The Commission may on its own motion, investigate or inquire into any action on the part of any person that constitutes, or is likely to result in, a violation of any of the rights protected under section 61 of the Constitution.

(2) Any person who is aggrieved by any act in violation of any right protected under section 61 of the Constitution may make a written complaint to the Commission requesting it to investigate the act complained of.

(3) A complaint in terms of this section may be brought by a legal representative, a family member or any other person who the Commission considers suitable so to do, acting on behalf of another person who for any reason is unable to do so in his or her own behalf.

- (4) The Commission shall not investigate, hear or inquire into any complaint—
- (a) unless the complaint is submitted to it within three years of the date the action complained of occurred:

Provided that such investigation, hearing or inquiry shall not relate to any action that occurred before the date of commencement of this Act; or

- (b) where the action complained of is the subject of any court proceedings or of any investigation, hearing or inquiry by any other independent Commission.

9 Submission of complaints

(1) The Commission shall, in regulations made in terms of this Act, prescribe the form in which complaints shall be made, indicating the particulars to be provided in the prescribed form and any supporting documents to accompany the form.

(2) The Commission shall not refuse to investigate, hear or inquire into a complaint solely on the grounds that the complaint is not in the prescribed form or in any way fails to comply with any of the prescribed requirements.

(3) If the Commission for any lawful reason refuses to investigate or discontinues any investigation, hearing or inquiry, it shall in writing—

- (a) inform the complainant and the person against whom the complaint is made of its decision, stating the reasons for its decision; and
- (b) where appropriate, advise the complainant of any other remedy that appears to it to be available to him or her.

10 Conduct of investigations

(1) Subject to subsection (7), the Commission may in its discretion conduct an investigation, hearing or inquiry in the form of public or closed proceedings.

(2) The principal officer of any entity shall represent the entity in any dealings with the Commission.

(3) For the purposes of any investigation, hearing or inquiry in terms of this Act, the powers, rights and privileges of members of the Commission shall be the same as those conferred upon a commissioner by the Commissions of Inquiry Act [Chapter 10:07], other than the power to order a person to be detained in custody, and sections 9 to 18 of that Act shall apply, mutatis mutandis, in relation to an inquiry by the Commission under this Act and to a person summoned to give evidence or giving evidence at the inquiry.

(4) In the conduct of any investigation, hearing or inquiry, the Commission shall not be bound by the strict rules of evidence, and may ascertain any relevant fact by any means which it thinks fit subject to the rules of natural justice.

(5) The Commission shall afford the person against whom a complaint has been made an adequate opportunity to respond to such allegations.

(6) Subject to section 86(1) and (2) of the Constitution, the Commission may, having regard to any special circumstances of the case based on the grounds of public interest, which grounds shall be recorded in writing, hold any inquiry or hearing in camera and any information disclosed in camera may only be disclosed to any person—

- (a) without disclosing the identity of any person who gave the information in camera for the purposes of the investigation, hearing or inquiry and for any report to be made thereon; or

- (b) for the purposes of any proceedings for perjury alleged to have been committed in the course of an investigation, hearing or inquiry.

(7) The Minister may, at any stage during the investigation or hearing of or inquiry into a complaint by the Commission, produce to the Commission a certificate in writing signed by him or her to the effect that the disclosure of any information specified in the certificate is, in his or her opinion and subject to section 86(1) and (2) of the Constitution, contrary to the public interest on the grounds that it may prejudice the defence, external relations, internal security or economic interests of the state, whereupon the Commission shall make arrangements for any such information to be given in camera and shall take such other action as may be necessary or expedient to prevent the disclosure of that information.

(8) The complainant may, in accordance with the Administrative Justice Act [Chapter 10:28], appeal against a certificate issued in terms of subsection (7), and the court hearing the appeal shall treat any evidence or documentation subject to the certificate in the manner specified in section 8 of that Act.

(9) The law relating to the competence or compellability of any person on the grounds of privilege to give evidence, answer any questions or produce any record or document before the Commission shall apply.

(10) Any member of the Commission or member of staff of the Commission who, without the authority of the Commission, discloses any information, evidence or documentation referred to in subsection (6) or (7), or makes any use of such information for his or her own benefit, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level 12 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

11 Rights of interested persons

(1) The Commission shall give every person who has an interest in a matter an opportunity to make representations during any investigation, hearing or inquiry.

(2) The Commission may determine whether—

- (a) representations are to be made orally or in writing; and
- (b) any other person is entitled to be present during any proceedings or to have access to or to comment on representations made to the Commission by another person.

(3) Every person appearing before the Commission at any investigation, hearing or inquiry may be represented at the proceedings by a legal practitioner.

(4) Any investigation, hearing or inquiry into any matter shall be completed—

- (a) where time is of the essence, within the shortest possible time in order to afford the complainant an appropriate remedy in such circumstances;
- (b) in any other case, within a period not exceeding sixty (60) days from the date of the complaint.

12 Measures following investigation

(1) If, after conducting an investigation, hearing or inquiry, the Commission is of the opinion that the act complained of constitutes a violation in terms of this Act and that—

- (a) the act relates to a decision or practice on the part of any person which must be stopped, reversed or altered; or
- (b) the act should be redressed in such manner as the Commission may order; or
- (c) any law on which the act was based should be reconsidered; or
- (d) reasons should have been given for the action complained against; or
- (e) any other steps should be taken in relation to the act complained against;

the Commission shall make such order or recommendations in the matter as it considers appropriate in the circumstances for the redress of the violation and the order or recommendations shall be accompanied by reasons therefor incorporated in a report of the findings of the Commission.

(2) If the report makes any recommendation in terms of subsection (1)(c), a copy of the report shall be sent to the Minister or any other appropriate Minister having the administration of the law concerned.

- (3) The Commission may, where it considers it necessary, recommend—
- (a) the payment of compensation to the complainant; or
 - (b) that the complainant seek redress through the courts.

(4) The determination of the Commission following the conclusion of any investigation, hearing or inquiry shall be in writing and a copy shall be made available to the parties and any other party considered by the Commission to have an interest in the matter.

13 Enforcement of orders of Commission

(1) The Commission shall require the person against whom or which it made any order or recommendation to notify it, within a specified period not exceeding fourteen (14) days or such shorter period as the circumstances of the matter may reasonably require where time is of the essence, of the steps, if any, that it proposes to take to give effect to its order or recommendation.

(2) Subject to this section, the Commission or a complainant may apply to the High Court within three years of the date of an order, and in such form and manner prescribed in rules of the court, for the registration of any order made by the Commission in terms of section 12 and, upon registration, the order may be enforced in the same way as a judgment of the High Court.

14 Conflicts of interest

(1) A member of the Commission shall not in any way participate in, nor be present at, any proceedings before the Commission in which the member is aware that he or she has a direct or indirect interest that may be in conflict with his or her functions as a member of the Commission.

(2) If at any stage during the course of any proceedings before the Commission it appears that any member has or may have an interest which may cause such a conflict of interests to arise on his or her part—

- (a) the member shall forthwith and fully disclose the nature of his or her interest and leave the proceedings so as to enable the remaining members to discuss the matter and determine whether the member is precluded from participating in such meeting by reason of a conflict of interest; and
- (b) such disclosure and the decision taken by the remaining members regarding such determination shall be recorded in the minutes of the proceedings in question.

(3) If any member of the Commission wilfully partakes in the proceedings of the Commission concerning any matter in respect of which he or she knows that he or she has a direct or indirect interest that conflicts with his or her functions as a member—

- (a) he or she shall be guilty of gross misconduct and dealt with in accordance with section 237(3) of the Constitution;
- (b) the decision of the Commission concerning such matter shall be void if the deliberations or vote of the member was decisive in bringing the decision about.

15 Commission may institute actions for redress of violations

(1) The Commission may, if it thinks fit, where it has completed an investigation, hearing or inquiry in respect of any violation in terms of this Act, of its own motion or on the basis of a complaint made to it, in its own name or on behalf of any complainant or class of complainants, pursue any action in any court of competent jurisdiction for the redress of any violation and, where it acts on the basis of a complaint, be cited as a joint party with the complainant or class of complainants in question.

(2) Where the Commission institutes any action against the State, the provisions of the State Liabilities Act [Chapter 8:14] shall apply to such action.

16 Appeals from decisions of Commission

(1) Any person who is aggrieved at any order or finding of the Commission in terms of this Act may appeal to the High Court within thirty (30) days of the date of the order or finding concerned.

(2) The High Court shall not set aside any order or finding by reason only of any informality in the proceedings of the Commission which did not in any way prejudice the appellant in any proceedings before the Commission.

PART IV

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

17 Funds of Commission

- (1) The funds of the Commission shall consist of—
- (a) such moneys as may be payable to the Commission from moneys appropriated for the purpose by an Act of Parliament;
 - (b) any donations, grants or bequests made by any person or organisation or any government of any country to the Commission:

Provided that the Commission shall only accept such donations, grants or bequests after it has consulted the Minister;

- (c) fees, levies and charges for services rendered by the Commission to its clients;
- (d) and any other moneys that vest in or accrue to the Commission, whether in terms of this Act or otherwise.

(2) The Commission shall ensure that fees, levies and charges referred to in subsection (1)(c)—

- (a) are prescribed by regulations with the approval of the Minister;
- (b) uphold, promote and develop freedom of the media.

(3) The Commission shall apply its funds to the fulfilment of its functions and shall further observe public finance management principles established in terms of section 298 of the Constitution.

18 Accounts of Commission and appointment of internal auditor

(1) The Commission shall ensure that proper accounts and other records relating to such accounts are kept in respect of all the activities, funds and property of the Commission, including such particular accounts and records as provided for by the Public Finance Management Act [Chapter 22:19].

(2) As soon as possible after the end of each financial year, the Commission shall prepare and submit to the Minister a statement of accounts in respect of that financial year or in respect of such other period as provided for by the Public Finance Management Act [Chapter 22:19].

(3) Upon receiving the report in terms of subsection (2), the Minister shall within the first twenty eight (28) seating days of the Parliament thereafter, lay such report before Parliament.

19 Audit of accounts

(1) The accounts of the Commission shall be audited by the Auditor-General who, for that purpose, shall have the powers and functions conferred on him or her by sections 7 and 8 of the Audit Office Act [Chapter 22:18].

(2) Any person under the authority or supervision of the Commission who refuses to provide the Auditor-General with an explanation or information required by him or her for the purposes of an audit or knowingly provides the Auditor-General with a false explanation or information, or an explanation or information that the person has no grounds for believing to be true, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level 8 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in subsection (1), the Auditor-General may appoint a suitably qualified person to audit the accounts of the Commission and if he or she does so—

- (a) subsections (1) and (2) shall apply in respect of the person so appointed as if he or she were the Auditor-General; and
- (b) any expenses incurred by the person so appointed in carrying out the audit shall be met from the funds of the Commission.

20 Annual reports of Commission

(1) The Commission must submit to Parliament, through the responsible Minister, an annual report describing fully its operations and activities, the report being submitted not later than the end of March in the year following the year to which the report relates.

(2) In addition to the report referred to in subsection (1), The Zimbabwe Media Commission may, through the appropriate Minister, submit reports to Parliament on particular matters relating to the media which, in the Commission's opinion, should be brought to the attention of Parliament.

PART V

MEDIA FUND

21 Establishment and vesting of Media Fund

- (1) There is hereby established a fund to be known as the Media Fund.
- (2) Subject to this Part, the Fund shall be vested in and administered by the Commission as trustee.
- (3) Not more than thirty per centum (30 %) of the moneys of the Fund in any financial year, shall be spent on administrative purposes connected with the objects of the Fund.

22 Objects of Fund

The objects of the Fund shall be—

- (a) capacity building of the media services in order to maintain high standards of quality in the provision of media services; and
- (b) to assist in the training of persons in the provision of media services; and
- (c) to promote and contribute towards research and development in the field of media services; and
- (d) to promote public awareness on the right of access to information and protection of privacy.

23 Moneys of Fund

The Fund shall consist of—

- (a) such moneys as may be raised by levies imposed in terms of section 24;
- (b) such moneys as may be payable to the Fund from moneys appropriated by an Act of Parliament for the purpose of the Fund; and
- (c) any surplus of income over expenditure at the end of the Commission's financial year appropriated in terms of paragraph (b);
- (d) any other moneys to which the Fund may be lawfully entitled.

24 Levies

- (1) Every mass media owner shall pay the prescribed annual levy to the Fund.
- (2) The dates on which the levies to the Fund become payable and the manner in which they shall be paid shall be as prescribed.
- (3) Where any mass media owner fails to pay the whole or any part of a levy within seven days after the date when it is due to the Fund, the owner shall be liable to pay to the Fund an amount equivalent to double the levy due.
- (4) The Commission may, by action in a competent court, recover the amount of a levy or penalty payable in terms of this section.

25 Holding of Fund

- (1) The Fund shall be administered by the Commission.
- (2) All moneys received on behalf of the Fund shall be paid into a banking account and no money shall be withdrawn therefrom except by means of cheques signed by such persons as are authorised in that behalf by the Commission.
- (3) Any part of the Fund not immediately required for the purposes of the Fund may be invested in such manner as the Commission after consultation with the Minister may determine:

Provided that such moneys shall not be invested directly in any securities issued by a media service.

26 Financial year of Fund

The financial year of the Fund shall be the period of twelve (12) months ending on the 31st December in each year.

27 Accounts and audit of Fund

(1) The Commission shall cause proper books of accounts of the Fund to be kept, together with adequate financial and other records in relation thereto, and, within three months after the end of the financial year to which the accounts relate, shall submit the accounts to the Comptroller and Auditor-General for audit in terms of subsection (2).

(2) The accounts of the Fund shall be audited by the Comptroller and Auditor-General, who shall have all the powers conferred upon him or her by section 9 of the Audit and Exchequer Act [Chapter 22:03], as though the assets of the Fund were public moneys or State property.

PART VI

GENERAL PROVISIONS

28 Records Commission

(1) In addition to the minutes it is require to keep in terms of this Act, the Commission shall keep proper records of all its proceedings, findings, orders and recommendations made in terms of this Act.

(2) The records referred to in subsection (1) shall be kept at the offices of the Commission and be open for inspection by interested parties during normal office hours.

(3) The Commission shall, at the request of any member of the public and on payment of such fee as may be prescribed, furnish him or her with a certified copy of or an extract from any record.

(4) The Commission must submit to Parliament, through the responsible Minister, an annual report describing fully its operations and activities, the report being submitted not later than the end of March in the year following the year to which the report relates.

(5) In addition to the report referred to in subsection (4), the Commission may, through the appropriate Minister, submit reports to Parliament on particular matters relating to the media which, in the Commission's opinion, should be brought to the attention of Parliament.

29 Regulations

(1) The Commission, with the approval of the Minister, may make regulations providing for all matters which by this Act are required or permitted to be prescribed or which, in its opinion, are necessary or convenient to be provided for in order to carry out or give effect to this Act.

(2) Regulations may provide for the terms and conditions of service of the Secretary and staff of the Commission.

(3) Regulations may provide for offences and penalties which may be imposed for contraventions of the regulations, not exceeding a fine of level 6 or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or both such fine and such imprisonment.

6. Validity of decisions and acts of Commission.

Disqualification for appointment to Commission

1. In addition to sections 236 and 320(3) of the Constitution, a person shall not be qualified for appointment as a member of the Commission, nor shall he or she hold office as a member, if—

- (a) he or she is not a citizen of Zimbabwe or ordinarily resident in Zimbabwe; or
- (b) in terms of the law in force in any country—
 - (i) he or she has been adjudged or otherwise declared insolvent or bankrupt and has not been rehabilitated or discharged; or
 - (ii) he or she has made an assignment to or composition with his or her creditors which has not been rescinded or set aside; or
- (c) he or she is, or, within the period of five years immediately preceding his or her proposed appointment, he or she has been sentenced in any country to a term of imprisonment imposed with or without the option of a fine, whether or not any portion thereof has been suspended, and has not received a free pardon; or
- (d) he or she is convicted in any country of any offence involving dishonesty.

Vacation of office by members of Commission

2. (1) A member may resign from his or her office at any time by giving the Minister and the Commission at least one month's notice of his or her intention to resign such other period of notice as he or she and the Minister may agree.

(2) In addition to section 236 of the Constitution, a member shall immediately cease to hold office and his or her office shall become vacant if he or she becomes disqualified in terms of paragraph 1.

Procedure of Commission

3. (1) Subject to subparagraph (2), the Commission shall meet at such dates, times and places as may be fixed by the chairperson:

Provided that the Commission shall meet at least once every three months.

(2) The chairperson—

- (a) may convene a special meeting of the Commission at any time; and
- (b) shall convene a special meeting of the Commission on the written request of at least two members, which meeting shall be convened for a date not sooner than seven days and not later than 30 days after the chairperson's receipt of the request.

(3) Written notice of a special meeting convened in terms of subparagraph (2) shall be sent to each member not later than 48 hours before the meeting and shall specify the business for which the meeting has been convened:

Provided that a failure by a member to receive such a notice, or an inadvertent failure to send a notice to a member, shall not invalidate the meeting.

(4) No business shall be discussed at a special meeting convened in terms of subparagraph (2) other than—

- (a) such business as may be determined by the chairperson where he or she convened the meeting in terms of subparagraph (2)(a); or
- (b) the business specified in the request for the meeting, where the chairperson convened the meeting in terms of subparagraph (2)(b).

(5) In the absence of the chairperson the deputy chairperson shall preside over the meeting of the Commission as chairperson.

(6) In the absence of the chairperson or deputy chairperson, the members present shall, if they constitute a quorum, elect one of their number to preside over the meeting of the Commission as chairperson.

(7) At any meeting of the Commission, five members of the Commission shall form a quorum.

(8) Any decision of the Commission shall be decided by a majority vote of the members at that meeting.

(9) At all meetings of the Commission each member present shall have one vote on each question before the Commission.

(10) With the approval of the Commission, the chairperson may invite any person to attend a meeting of the Commission where the chairperson considers that the person has special knowledge or experience in any matter to be considered at the meeting.

(11) A person invited to attend a meeting of the Commission under subparagraph (9) may take part in the meeting as if he or she were a member of the Commission, but shall not have a vote on any question before the meeting.

(12) Any proposal circulated among all members of the Commission and agreed to in writing by a majority of them shall have the same effect as a resolution passed at a duly constituted meeting of the members and shall be incorporated into the minutes of the next meeting of the Commission:

Provided that, if a member requires that such a proposal be placed before a meeting of the Commission, this subparagraph shall not apply to the proposal.

(13) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, the procedure for the convening and conduct of meetings of the Commission shall be as fixed from time to time by the Commission.

Committees of Commission

4. (1) For the better exercise of its functions, the Commission may establish one or more committees in which it may vest such of its functions as it considers appropriate.

(2) The vesting of a function in a committee in terms of subparagraph (1)—

- (a) may be made absolutely or subject to conditions and may be amended or withdrawn at any time; and
- (b) shall not divest the Commission of that function;

and the Commission may amend or rescind any decision of the committee in the exercise of that function.

(3) On the establishment of a committee under subparagraph (1) the Commission—

- (a) shall appoint at least one of its members as a member of the committee, and that member or one of those members designated by the Commission, as the case may be, shall be chairperson of the committee; and
- (b) may appoint as members of the committee persons who are not members of the Commission and fix the terms and conditions of their appointment.

(4) Meetings of a committee may be convened at any time and at any place by the chairperson of the committee.

(5) If the chairperson of the committee is absent from a meeting of the committee, the members present may elect one of their members to preside at that meeting as chairperson.

(6) A majority of members of a committee shall form a quorum at any meeting of a committee.

(7) Anything authorised or required to be done by a committee may be decided by a majority vote at a meeting of the committee at which a quorum is present.

(8) At all meetings of a committee each member present shall have one vote on each question before the committee.

(9) Subject to this paragraph, the procedure to be followed at any meeting of a committee shall be fixed by the Commission.

Minutes of proceedings

5. (1) The Commission shall cause minutes to be taken at its meetings and at meetings of its committees and enter them in books kept for the purpose.

(2) Any minutes which purport to be signed by the person presiding at the meeting to which the minutes relate or by the person presiding at the next following meeting of the Commission or committee, as the case may be, shall be accepted for all purposes as prima facie evidence of the proceedings and decisions taken at the meeting concerned.

(3) The Commission and any committee of the Commission shall cause copies of all minutes that have been signed to be sent to the Minister for his or her information.

Validity of decisions and acts of Commission

6. (1) No decision or act of the Commission or act done under the authority of the Commission shall be invalid solely because there were one or more vacancies on the Commission when the decision was taken or the act was done or authorised or a disqualified person partook in the act or decision.

(2) If any decision or other act of the Commission is rendered invalid through a procedural irregularity, the Commission may at a duly convened meeting ratify the decision or act, and any decision or act so ratified shall be valid in all respects with effect from the date of its ratification.
