The Chief Elections Officer shall, not more than fourteen days after the day fixed by the President in terms of section 38(2)(a) of the Act as the day on which the nomination court shall sit, appoint constituency elections officers for each constituency and specify by notice in the Gazette the constituency or constituencies involved and address of the constituency elections officer for each constituency.

Distinction of ballot papers when Parliamentary and Presidential elections coincide

5. When Parliamentary and Presidential elections coincide, ballot papers issued to voters in the Parliamentary election shall be printed in a colour different from that in which ballot papers issued to voters in the Presidential election are printed.

Deposits on nomination

6. Section repealed by SI 88/2013, Electoral (Nomination of Candidates) Regulations, 2013, with effect from 13th June 2013 and again by SI 153/2014. See now SI 153/2014.

Instruments for marking ballot papers

7.(1) An electoral officer shall not divulge to any person particulars of the instrument which is supplied to electoral officers for marking ballot papers with the official mark.

(2) The constituency elections officer shall place the instruments referred to in subsection (1) in sealed packets, and shall not open such sealed packets or permit them to be opened until immediately before the commencement of the poll.

Counting of votes

8.(1) At the time notified by the presiding officer for the counting of votes the presiding officer shall distribute the ballot papers in each ballot box referred to in section 55 (1) of the Act to counting officers in lots suitable for scrutiny and counting.

⁶ Words "or mayor" deleted by SI 32/2008.

(2) The counting officers shall scrutinize the ballot papers and set aside all ballot papers which, in their opinion, are such as are described in section 63(3) of the Act for the decision of the presiding officer in terms of that subsection.

(3) The counting officers shall set aside in a separate pile or bundle those ballot papers which do not bear the official mark of a presiding officer so that the presiding officer may determine, after the number of votes cast at the election has been ascertained, whether such ballot papers should not be rejected by virtue of section 63(5) of the Act.

(4) When the scrutiny of the ballot papers is completed, the presiding officer, with the assistance of the counting officers, shall then ascertain the result of the poll by counting the votes.

(5) The presiding officer shall adopt such means as to him or her seem best suited for dealing with the counting of the votes, and shall direct that every pile or bundle of ballot papers made up by any counting officer shall be handed to another counting officer or to himself or herself, but to no other person, to be checked in order to ensure that every such pile or bundle comprises no more and no less than the number of ballot papers stated to be comprised therein by the first counting officer.

(6) The presiding officer shall record the details of the counting on a polling station-return as shown on form V.11.

No person to notify results before polling-station return has been affixed outside the polling station

9. No person in attendance at the counting of the votes shall, before the result of the poll is recorded on the polling-station return and such polling-station return has been affixed outside the polling station by the presiding officer in accordance with section 64(2) of the Act, communicate to any person outside the place where the votes are being counted any information relating to the results of the count or to the number of votes given to any particular candidate at that polling station.

Collation of polling-station returns and aggregation of ordinary postal ballots

10. At the time and place notified by the constituency elections officer under section 65(1) of the Act, the constituency elections officer shall—

- (a) verify the receipt of the polling-station returns by filling in the appropriate spaces provided at the top of form V.23; and
- (b) verify the postal ballots by completing Part A of form V.24; and
- (c) add together the number of votes received by each candidate as shown in each polling-station return by filling in the appropriate spaces provided in form V.23; and
- (d) unseal the postal ballot box and, having counted the postal ballot papers contained therein, record the results of the counting by completing Part B of form V.24; and
- (e) add together the number of votes received by each candidate as recorded under paragraphs (c) and (d) and fill the appropriate spaces provided at the bottom of form V.23.

Declaration of result of poll

11.(1) Subject to this section, the constituency elections officer shall declare the result of the poll in terms of section 66(1) of the Act by saying, both inside and outside the constituency centre, the following—

“I, being the constituency elections officer for the constituency, do hereby declare that I have, in accordance with the Electoral Act [Chapter 2:13], and the regulations made thereunder, ascertained the result of the poll for the said constituency, and that there have been given to—

(Name of candidate and party if any)

.....votes;
..... votes;
..... votes;

and that I therefore declare the said this day to be duly elected member of Parliament for the constituency.”.

(2) If at a poll referred to in subsection (1) two or more candidates have received an equal number of votes and such equality affects the result of the election, the constituency elections officer shall declare such result by saying, both inside and outside the place of verification and collation of polling-station returns, the following—

“I, being the constituency elections officer for the constituency, do hereby declare that I have, in accordance with the Electoral Act [Chapter 2:13], and the regulations made thereunder, ascertained the result of the poll for the said constituency, and that there have been given to—

(Name of candidate and party if any)

..... votes;
..... votes;
..... votes;

and that, as and have received an equal number of votes and such equality affects the result of the election, the provisions of section 66(2) of the Electoral Act [Chapter 2:13], do apply, and the election shall be determined by the drawing of lots by the Chief Elections Officer in the presence of a judge of the Electoral Court.”:

Provided that, if such equality exists after the last count referred to in subsection (2), before making the statement in terms of this subsection, the constituency elections officer shall make a statement in terms of subsection (2) indicating the number of votes given to each candidate as determined at each counting of the votes.

Collection of ballot boxes and packets after close of poll

12.(1) The constituency elections officer shall fix and notify each presiding officer of the time and place where he or she will receive the ballot boxes and sealed packets referred to in section 69(1) of the Act.

(2) At the time fixed in terms of subsection (1), the constituency elections officer shall attend at the place notified in terms of subsection (1) for the reception of the ballot boxes and sealed packets referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The constituency elections officer shall, on the receipt of the ballot boxes and sealed packets referred to in subsection (1), examine seals on each such box and packet, and shall—

- (a) afford the candidates and the agents of the candidates an opportunity to examine such seals; and
- (b) make a record of any such seal which appears to him or her to have been tampered with.

Presiding officer to arrange for delivery of ballot boxes

13. If a presiding officer is unable for any reason to deliver personally to the constituency elections officer any ballot box and sealed packets referred to in section 12(1), he or she shall—

- (a) inform the constituency elections officer that he or she is unable to return the box and packets and the reasons therefor; and
- (b) arrange with the constituency elections officer for the delivery of such ballot box and packets by a person approved by the constituency elections officer.

Office hours and inspection and copies of documents

14.(1) The hours during which the office of an electoral officer shall be open to members of the public during any week-day which is not a Saturday or public holiday shall be from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m:

Provided that the office of an electoral officer shall be open to members of the public on such additional days and for such longer hours as the Commission may prescribe or direct.

(2) Any person wishing to inspect a document which is open to inspection in terms of the Act shall specify the document and the election to which the document refers.

(3) A person inspecting any document referred to in subsection (2) shall not make any copy or extract from such document.

(4) A copy or extract from any document referred to in subsection (2) shall be supplied by the electoral officer upon payment of such fee as may be fixed by the Commission to cover the cost of making such copy or extract.

Cost of voters rolls⁷

15. Repealed by SI 85/2017. For cost of rolls see now SI 85/2017.

⁷ As substituted by SI 44/2008 with effect from 18th March 2008 and amended by SIs 26A, 68 and 83/2013.

Duties of constituency elections officers and polling officers when rolls printed

16.(1) The Commission shall arrange for every constituency elections officer and presiding officer to be furnished with a copy of the rolls for that election, and every constituency elections officer shall permit every candidate to examine, for such period as the constituency elections officer considers expedient in the circumstances, a copy of the rolls for that election

(2) At the election, the presiding officer may himself or herself, and if so required by a candidate or his or her chief election agent or election agent shall, before allowing a person to vote—

- (a) require the person to exhibit his or her proof of identity; and/or
- (b) put to him or her such questions as the presiding officer considers necessary to enable the presiding officer to be satisfied that the person is qualified to vote;

and if the person does not—

- (d) comply with paragraph (a); or
- (e) answer any question put to him or her under paragraph (b) to the satisfaction of the presiding officer;

he or she shall not be handed a ballot-paper:

Provided that—

- (i) no voter shall be disqualified from voting solely on the grounds that his or her answer to any question put to him or her under paragraph (b) indicates that he or she has changed his or her name or address or both;
- (ii) in the case of a change of name, the voter may be asked to produce proof of the same in the form of an affidavit, deed poll or notice of change of name in the Gazette.

(4) The presiding officer at the polling-station shall ascertain, by reference to the roll for the ward or⁸ constituency, that the person claiming to vote is a person enrolled on that roll and, having ascertained that he or she is so enrolled and his or her number on the roll, the presiding officer shall—

- (a) mark the ballot-paper with the official mark and hand it to the person claiming the vote; and
- (b) draw a line through the number and surname of the voter on the roll as evidence that the voter has received a ballot-paper.

(5) Immediately after the count, the presiding officer shall make up into a separate packet and seal in accordance with the provisions of section 69(1)(b) of the Act the marked copies of the roll and shall forthwith deliver or cause it to be delivered to the constituency elections officer.

(6) In relation to postal ballot papers—

- (a) it shall not be necessary for the application to be accompanied by the voters registration certificate of the applicant;
- (b) the constituency elections officer shall draw a line through the number and surname of the voter in a copy of the roll, certified as correct by the Chief Elections Officer, as evidence that the voter has been issued with the postal ballot paper to which he or she is entitled but without showing the particular ballot paper issued to him or her.

(7) The constituency elections officer shall, if possible before the polling day, send to the presiding officer of every polling-station in the constituency a list of persons to whom postal ballot papers have been issued and the presiding officer shall write on the roll the letters "P.V." opposite the name of each such voter.

(8) Immediately after the declaration of the result of the poll the constituency elections officer shall transmit all the marked copies of the rolls to the Chief Elections Officer who shall retain them for six months and, unless otherwise directed by an order of the Electoral Court, cause them to be destroyed.

Inspection of nomination paper after close of sitting of nomination court
